Library Regulations

Art. 1. The Library shall be known by the name of the "Wayland Town Library"

" 2. Its officers shall be a Librarian, Treasurer and a Library Committee, who shall be chosen in the manner, and shall perform the duties herein after specified.

" 3. The Library shall be kept undivided in some suitable room or building in the central part of the central village ^of Wayland^ perpetually

" 4. It shall be open every Saturday, from 1 to 3 P.M. and from 7 to 9 P.M. for delivery and return of Books, except that no books shall be delivered on the Saturday next preceeding the first Monday in April annually. No person except the Librarian shall be allowed at any time to take Books from the cases. It shall also be open every Town meeting day at the same hours.

" 5. Any resident in town over the age of Fourteen may have access to the Library and may take therefrom one volume at a time provided that no family has more than three volumes at the same time

Art 6. No Book shall be kept from the Library more than ~~three~~ ^four^ weeks at one time, under penalty of ten per cent of its original cost or (if the book be given to the Library) estimated value for each weeks delay in its return

No person however shall be obliged to pay an amount of fines one time which shall exceed the cost of the books, or set of books on which they were incurred.

" 7. All books shall be returned on or before the Saturday next preceeding the first Monday in April, annually under penalty of the cost of the book

" 8. If any book shall be lost or materially injured, the person to whom it stands charged shall either pay the appraised value thereof or replace it by a new volume or sitt [set?] if (it belongs to a set) of the same or later Edition and of equal value

" 9. Books shall be provided by the Library Committee containing a catalogue of the books belonging to the Library, together with such extracts from the regulations as may be deemed necessary and on application, a copy shall be given by the Librarian to the head of each family.

and said book with the owners name written therein shall be equivalent to an order therefrom to take out or exchange books by proxy.

Books so taken out shall be charged to the owner of the book, and he shall be responsible for the same

Art.10. The Librarian shall keep the Library room and its appurtenances in good order and properly ventilated warmed and lighted when open for the exchange of books

He shall record in a book kept for that purpose the name of every donor to the Library the property given the date of the donation, the estimated value thereof and the conditions (if any) on which given, also the title of each book purchased - its cost and the date of the purchase

He shall cover and attach to each book a printed label designating the name of the Library the number of the book and (if given) the name of the donor.

He shall enter in a book kept for the purpose the number of each book delivered by him, the time when, and the name of the person to whom delivered or by whom ordered and the time when returned.

He shall keep a correct account of all penalties incurred, and paid, when, and by whom.

and shall pay the amount to the Treasurer on or before the first Monday in April annually.

He shall carefully examine the account of each person on the first week of every Jan. July, and Oct. to ascertain all neglects in the due return of Books and shall forthwith notify all delinquent persons of thus neglect by written communications and if such books are not returned before the first of the following month, he shall cause the same to be looked up and returned at the expense of the delinquent.

He shall withhold the use of the Library from those from whom fines are due; and shall appraise the amount of damages done to books and other property belonging to the Library, subject to appeal to the Library Committee

Art 11. A Committee designated the Library Committee consisting of no less than three person, shall be chosen by ballot annually by the Town at their meeting in April, whose duty it shall be to estimate the value of all books, and other articles given to the Library, to purchase books therefor, to select and contract with a Librarian, and to decide all appealed cases of damage and loss of books.

They shall issue orders to the Treasurer to pay the necessary expenses for the support of the Library and its appurtenances; they shall exercise a general supervision and control thereof, and shall report the condition thereof to the Town at the above named meeting

Art 12. A Treasurer shall be annually chosen by ballot by the Town at their meeting in April who shall receive and take charge of all monies accruing from any source for the benefit of the Library subject to the order of the Library Committee

He shall hold in trust as agent for the town all funds which may from time to time arise for the same object. He shall at the meeting above named exhibit annually to the town a full and accurate account of all money received and disbursed and all other official acts done by him during the year then closed. He shall give to the Selectmen satisfactory bonds and sureties for the security of the above named trusts and for the faithful discharge of his duties in that office

" 13. All moneys accruing from fines and damages and from the use of the Library room for lectures &c shall be expended in the purchase of Books for the Library

" 14. The expense of the requisite furnishing and repairs of the Library room and building of warming and lighting the same, and the cost of labels Catalogue and Record books, and the Salary of the Librarian shall be paid by the Town.

The Library room may be used at the discretion of the Library Committee, and for such compensation as they may in any case deem suitable, for the following purposes

As a depositary for books belonging to the Library, also for documents, records and books belonging to the town:- for maps, engravings and paintings which may be presented to the Library for any apparatus and for specimens of art and nature

It may also be used as a place for interesting and instructive Lectures. Discussions. and Experiments and as a reading room for associations, or the Public.
